

Capital City Harley Davidson Rider's Edge

Payment, Cancellation & Refund Policy

Payment Policy

If registering 14 days or more prior to the class start date, student will be required to make a minimum of a $75 deposit to reserve their seat in the class. The remaining balance of the class fee is due and will be charged 14 days prior to the class start date.

If registering within 14 days of the class start date, the student will be required to pay the entire class fee to reserve their seat in the class.

Rescheduling a class

If a registered student reschedules a class 14 days or more prior to their scheduled start date, there is no processing fee.

If a registered student reschedules a class within 14 days of their scheduled class date, the student will be charged a non-refundable $50 processing fee.

Cancelling a class

If a registered student cancels a class and does not reschedule to another class within the same calendar year, they will be charged a $75 cancellation fee. Any remaining funds will be transferred to their dealership account.

Refund Policy

Any eligible refunds will be made only by placing the monies in a dealership account for the student customer to use for future purchases within the dealership. Under no circumstances will any cash or credit card refund be made.