Founded by Fremont locals Dave & Joan Thomson in 1969, Fort Fremont Marine is a customer-focused veteran of the Wisconsin water sports scene. The Thomson Family prides themselves on representing and servicing trusted performance brands. They admit they are not everything to everyone. Water sports is what they do best so that is what they do most. It is this reputation and dedication to their customers' passions that earned Fort Fremont Marine the Supra Boats line.

Brothers Dan, Jeff and Greg Thomson, the current owner-operators of Fort Fremont Marine, describe the driving force behind the dealership, this way. Dan said, "Our slogan is, 'specialty boats and special service'. That phrase sums up our reputation for first class service and quality products." Dan continued, "Offering a distinguished value performance brand like Supra Boats falls right in line with our focused direction as a company. We couldn't be happier to be offering Supra boats"

“The Wolf River area is thick with water sports enthusiasts and tradition. We were looking for a reputable dealership known for offering high-quality products. But even more important was selecting a dealer to deliver Supra’s refined performance with extreme customer focus,” explained Dan Miller, Vice President of Sales at Skier’s Choice, manufacturer of Supra Boats. “Fort Fremont Marine was the obvious choice and we are extremely excited to have them as a part of the Supra Family.”
